Hagen Ties Lafitte On Versailles Links, Coming From Behind

Of Big Squad DARIS, July 6,-Walter Hagen, the British open tournament last week was one of the big surprises, came through in brilliant form on La Boulie links at Versailles to-day and tied Lafitte, of Biarritz, for the French title.

When the start was made, Lafitte was leading Hagen by three strokes, having scored a total of 147 yesterday to Hagen's 150. The American, however, turned in one of his customary achievements of coming from behind and when the play ended today both had totals of 298. Hagen went around in 148 to-day, while Lafitte took 151 strokes.

Izzy Talks Conventions

Compares Bill Bryan and Connie-Mack

By W. O. McGeehan

"I just been down to Solomon's café, and I had it some ple al la Moe," Big Chestnut Gives Every Her Into 4th Round; Mrs. announced Izzy Kaplan. "It is pie with creamed ice, and while I was Lynch Beats Mrs. Candee there I got thinking. I am all the time thinking on account my brains, even when I don't think about nothing at all.

"But this time I got thinking about the Democratical conventioning and what is the use of it. The way I think nobody would care who the Demothe Greenwich Country Club got under cratical nominationer is when it gets late in the fall, any more than they would care what is the percentage of the Philadelphia Athalectical baseballers, if they got any percentage at all. Because I got it figgered out that ward Raymond, Connecticut champion; the Demoncraticals and the Athaiectics ain't going nowhere anyhow.

Mrs. Edward V. Lynen, Eastern T. Gont Know whether I should be the Connie Mack of politics. Forest Candee and Miss Clare Cassel, Anyhow, the Democratical nominationer ain't got no more chance of "I don't know whether I should say it that Connie Mack is the Bill

Forest Candee and Miss Clare Cassel, in the draw.

I have referred to this tourney as a "personally conducted" affair, because Mrs. Harry Franklin Morse, chairman of the committee, is also acting as referee, assisted by an emergency relief corps, consisting of the Misses Julia Shanley, Dorothy Leary, Dorothy Thompson and Katharine Pomeroy.

These young ladies not only played their part in the tournament as competitors and umpires, but also maintained a "taxi" service between the railroad station and the club, meeting all trains and transporting players back and forth. They are all potential Maybow, the Democratical nominationer ain't got no more chance of getting electioned than the Athalectics has got to be in the world's serious-mess.

"Anyhow, I am glad that the Democratical convention wouldn't nomination McAdoodle on account he had to get out of politics and go to work anyhow, because he couldn't support himseluf on his selery. Neither could I support myseluf on my selery when I was a second lootenant in the signaling corpse during the war, but I had to because the agitated general of the army wouldn't give me a raise. I asked him that he should give me a raise on account I am a better photografter than lots of majors, but he said he couldn't did it on account the army was getting too expensive.

No Money in Newspaper Game

"I was in the newspapering business myseluf once, and I never had a dime until I went in the photografting business for myself. So what is the sense that they should make for a president a feller which he has been practically a bummer all his life, which a newspapering feller is practically

Mrs. Mabel D. Straffin won two matches during the afternoon, first defeating Miss Ethel Hays at 6-1, 6-4, and then eliminating Mrs. Harold Lehman at 6-2, 3-6, 9-7, after a stubbornly fought driving duel.

Miss Leary and Miss Thempson, two of the local favorites, played a hard hitting, rapid-fire match, with Miss Leary taking the honors by a score of it. There is a lot of suckers in the world, but nobody is sucker enough to remain to make the learn to make the remain to make the found scored to suckers in the world, but nobody is sucker enough to spend good money trying to get the Democratical nomination when in oil in the neighborhood at 6–3, 6–1, respectively, playing that the feller that got it is slightly wet in his second, with 320. The number of entrant from Sweden has not been completed but it is believed they will be a close that France will have the largest representation at the Olympic Games. The United States will be a close of the manuel of the points quickly.

The United States in the world, hitting, rapidefire match, with Miss of the found of the honors by a score of the found scored to function. The Democratical nomination. Sure, I know that. The Democratical nomination. Sure, I know that the fell of the world, b "They are tolding me that the feller that got it is slightly wet in his planks, but it don't matter. The eighteen amendment needn't be afraid from the Democratical nominationer any more than the Yankish team of baseballers should be afraid from the Philadelphia Athalectics. I forgot the feller's name already, and it sin't November yet."

The best of the two good things was maiden two-year-old fillies that closed out the card. This was won by Joan Marie, which had been backed from 30 to 1 to 12 to 1. Joan Marie ran like a good filly; drew out in the last furlong, and won going away under a furlong, and won going away under a furlong, and won going away under a furlong.

Whitney Colt Almost Equals Track Record

Evidence of Ability to Go Distance Under Weight

By W. J. Macbeth

John P. Grier, the best three-yearold in the stable of Harry Payne Whityesterday's program at the Aqueduct track. This Whisk Broom 2d colt, never once fully let down by Jockey Clarence Kummer, galloped the dis-to back Grier against the super-horse if the pair were to meet at anything approximating equal weights.

But Grier on Saturday will have a pull off eighteen pounds—108 to 126. Weight, so they claim, will bring all horses together. The Dwyer will be the first time this season when Man o' War has not zone to the post praccally assured of a walk-over.

There is this to be said of the Sir Walter Handicap. W. R. Coe's Natural Bridge, the four-year-old that figured to give him whatever battle might develop, was eliminated at the start by Mars Cassidy, whose work of late has

Major Triumphs In Long Match Over Kynaston

This was only one and a fifth seconds Peter Ball, Walter L. Pate and G. A. L. Exterminator carried only 126 and S. Howard Voshell, former napounds, and there is little doubt if anything in John P. Grier's field had been able to extend him as Extermition and W. Peaslee at 6—2, 6—2, in nator was extended the great Whitney the second round. The doubles will show afternoon.
